

CHARLES LARRABEE.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. C. MORRIS, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Charles Larrabee, report :

That the petitioner represents that, while acting as captain in the 4th regiment of the United States infantry, he was wounded by a musket-ball in the left arm, on the 9th day of August, 1812. On the 13th of the same month his arm was amputated a little below the shoulder, but he continued in the service until 7th of April, 1825, when he resigned his commission.

A pension was allowed him, at the rate of $17 per month, from the said 7th of April, 1825 ; which was afterwards extended back to the 13th of April, 1824.

By a special act of Congress of the 2d of April, 1830, his pension was increased to $25 per month, to take effect from said 2d of April.

It appears that, from the 9th of August, 1812, to the 13th of April, 1824, no pension has been allowed ; and the petitioner prays that his pension be allowed during said time.

The committee are of opinion that, as the petitioner received full pay from the Government, for his services during the period for which he asks a pension, he is not entitled to further relief.

Blair & Rives, printers.

CHARLES LARRABEE.

MARCH 5, 1840.
Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. C. Morris, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Charles Larrabee, report:

That the petitioner represents that, while acting as captain in the 4th regiment of the United States infantry, he was wounded by a musket-ball in the left arm, on the 9th day of August, 1812. On the 13th of the same month his arm was amputated a little below the shoulder, but he continued in the service until 7th of April, 1835, when he resigned his commission.

A pension was allowed him, at the rate of $17 per month, from the said 7th of April, 1835; which was afterwards extended back to the 13th of April, 1834.

By a special act of Congress of the 2d of April, 1836, his pension was increased to $25 per month, to take effect from said 2d of April.

It appears that, from the 9th of August, 1812, to the 13th of April, 1834, no pension has been allowed; and the petitioner prays that his pension be allowed during said time.

The committee are of opinion that, as the petitioner received full pay from the Government for his services during the period for which he asks a pension, he is not entitled to further relief.

Blair & River, printers.